Changes for "Academic Communication of Science I" in 2020

"Academic Communication of Science I" will be conducted online considering DOVID-2019. Due to this change, details of this subject will be changed as below and attached schedule.

(1) How to conduct the subjects: Online by WebEx

The participants do not need to gather at Tottori university. Participants will demonstrate their oral presentation and discussion by their own PC. The special lecture will be held by zoom. How to take the special lecture by zoom will be notified later.

The office of UGSAS, Tottori University (ag-rengaku@ml.adm.tottori-u.ac.jp) will email the participants WebEx link address in advance.

At the beginning of the subject, which is 13:00 on 20th May, please click the WebEx link address then log-in page will appear.

The Plug-in installation page will appear for the first time so please install it by following the instructions.

The attendance page will appear after installation, so please enter your name and email address, then click attend button.

Please click the leave button when the seminar of each day is finished.

- (1) Oral presentations: Students shall demonstrate the oral presentation on their research plan in the doctoral course for approximately 16 minutes (oral presentation for 12 minutes and Q&A for 4 minutes). PowerPoint of the demonstrator will be displayed on all participants' PC screen. Please note as below and prepare your presentation and poster data for this subject.
  - In an oral talk, students try to produce his/her Ph.D. course study from the scientific background with plain explanation. Please start your talk from the basics on your research.
  - Fruits of researches before entering UGSAS can be included.
  - An oral presentation should be in English.
  - The contents of the presentation should be written in English.
  - Please keep your presentation time. The presentation will be cut-off if the demonstrator cannot finish his/her presentation within his/her presentation time.
- (2) Poster presentation: Poster session will be cancelled, but please submit poster data based on the oral presentation details to the UGSAS office by May 20th. The poster data will be scored.
  - * Please prepare the poster data in size A0 (841mm x 1189mm) format.
  - * The poster must be made in English.
  - * The poster must be made in PowerPoint and PDF.
- (3) Summary of the research presentation: Please submit one page summary in English (see sample), A4 size, by e-mail (ag-rengaku@ml.adm.tottori-u.ac.jp) to the Academic Affairs Section of the United Graduate School of Agricultural Sciences (UGSAS) as indicated in the first notification. The deadline for submission is strictly May 8th (Fri.). All the summaries will be compiled to be distributed to students in prior to the first day of this subject.
- (4) Special lectures: One lecturer on May 21st, which will be held online.
- (5) If you have any questions, please contact:

The office of UGSAS, Tottori University (ag-rengaku@ml.adm.tottori-u.ac.jp) or Dr. Motoichiro Kodama (mk@tottori-u.ac.jp).
